No. 12-495V
Special Master Christian J. Moran

Filed: August 26, 2013

Stipulation; hepatitis B vaccine;
symptomatic orthostatic hypotension.

Andrew D. Downing, Hennelly & Steadman, P.C., Phoenix, AZ, for Petitioner;
Gordon E. Shemin, United States Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., for Respondent.

UNPUBLISHED DECISION¹

On August 22, 2013, respondent filed a stipulation concerning the petition for compensation filed by [REDACTED] on August 7, 2012. In her petition, petitioner alleged that the hepatitis B vaccine, which is contained in the Vaccine Injury Table (the "Table"), 42 C.F.R. §100.3(a), and which she received on August 12, 2009, caused her to suffer symptomatic orthostatic hypotension. Petitioner further alleges that she suffered the residual effects of this injury for more than six months. Petitioner represents that there has been no prior award or settlement of a civil action for damages on her behalf as a result of her condition.

Respondent denies that the hepatitis B vaccine caused petitioner's alleged symptomatic orthostatic hypotension and/or any other injuries.

Nevertheless, the parties agree to the joint stipulation, attached hereto as Appendix A. The undersigned finds said stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding damages, on the terms set forth therein.

¹ The E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002), requires that the Court post this decision on its website. Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 18(b), the parties have 14 days to file a motion proposing redaction of medical information or other information described in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4). Any redactions ordered by the special master will appear in the document posted on the website.

Damages awarded in that stipulation include:

A lump sum payment of $575,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, [REDACTED] This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the clerk is directed to enter judgment in case 12-495V according to this decision and the attached stipulation.²

Any questions may be directed to my law clerk, Tucker McCarthy, at (202) 357-6392.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
